

Season and All-Season Passes Now Available

Members of the Music Hall can now take advantage of special ticket pricing for advance ticket purchases, and be guaranteed prime seating at every show. With either pass, if you can't attend a given show you may invite a guest to sit in your place. Purchase either a Season Pass (Fall, Winter or Spring) for $60; or an All-Season Pass (includes membership renewal) for $170. Passes may be purchased at river's end bookstore, at the door or by sending a check (received no later than Sept 24) to: Season Pass, Ontario Center for Performing Arts, PO Box 65, Oswego, New York 13126.

New Ticketing System

For the Fall Season there is no additional cost for online ticket purchases, and seating will be determined by section on a first come basis. While we are no longer accepting ticket reservations by phone, there is the added flexibility of being able to purchase tickets for future shows at Music Hall performances and at the river's end bookstore. To purchase tickets online, the easiest option, start at the main page of the Music Hall Web site, <http://www.oswegomusichall.org/> Of course, tickets also continue to be available at the door on a space available basis.

Message from the Music Hall President:

Members and supporters of the Music Hall,

To many we're an institution, especially to the emerging musician and songwriter and to the community that supports us, wakes us up, and puts us to bed every two weeks. We've done it for over thirty years! For us change can be difficult, slow, and often behind the advancing times. Yet to keep up the quality of performances and to keep admission affordable, change we must.

So this fall is special. Along with a fabulous line up, we're introducing significant changes to our ticket and reservation system.

- You'll now be able to buy tickets for shows as far in advance as we publish them.*
- Tickets will be available on line, at the "river's end bookstore", and during our shows.*
- This fall there will be no additional charge for tickets purchased on line.*
- Reserved seating will be assigned to early ticket purchasers on a first come basis.*
- We're now offering annual and season passes with prime seating at great prices!*

We'll no longer be taking reservations by phone, so buy tickets early to guarantee preferred seating!

We've worked hard to make things fair, manageable, and convenient. We're working to keep prices down, to bring the best artists to the stage, and to serve this community with excellence into the future.

Thanks for your support and your patience as we evolve.

*Mark Wahl, President
Ontario Center for Performing Arts*
